"Gathering of the Choir"			Offering
"The Call to Worship"			"The Greeting" LHM 10
Praise the Lord from the highest heavens.			"The Prayer of Dedication: God of glory, we thank you for your many blessings. You plant fruit trees to feed your creation and cause the sun and moon to provide warmth and light. Your creation here provides everything we need to walk in holiness, even outside the trials and tribulations of life. In thankfulness and praise for the love that guides us and the hand that lifts our lives with good things, we dedicate this offering as signs of our love and service in the name of Christ, the promise of our salvation, all praise as glory be unto you. In the name of Christ, we pray. Amen."

Worship the Lord our God.			"The Change and Blessing"
Pay homage to the ruler of heaven and earth.			As we journey through the Christmas season, More than a star guides us, As we traverse the hillsides of Jude, More than a messenger shows us the way, As we ride the rapids of our lives, More than an angel abides in these homes, Where we live the faith of Christmas, More than the delight of holiday meals blesses us, In Christmas, we taste the joy of our salvation, We touch the presence of the living God, Go with God. Amen.
"Hymn "Joy to the World" LHM 146			"Response "Hail Be the Yea That Brings in. 1 LHM 187
"The Opening Prayer"			"Censing of the Trinity"Postlude "Praise shared as you are able."
God of holy mystery, it was no heavenly stranger that came to save us; it was no happy accident that freed us from captivity; it was no curious gesture that showed us the ways of life and death. You are our light and our salvation. You alone are worthy of our worship and praise. In this season of Christmas, remind us once more of what you offer: a love born of endless reaching, a connection born of deep longing, a future born of endless sacrifice. Be with us now, for we are your people and you are our God. Amen.
